

The Bisong Blueprint™ – Video Scriptbook

Video 1 – Your Voice Wasn't Meant to Be Silent

HOOK: "Your silence is not humility. It's a spiritual malfunction."

STORY:

I used to believe that being quiet meant being humble.

That if I just prayed hard enough, journaled long enough, stayed in the background long enough... somehow... the right people would "see" me.

But days passed. Weeks passed. And I remained hidden, gifted—but invisible.

Until I realized... my silence wasn't sacred. It was sabotaging everything I was born to build.

NEED:

There are millions of voices online right now... but how many actually carry power?

How many people post every day... but can't turn their pain into a product... their story into strategy... their gift into growth?

If you're a visionary, a speaker, a writer, a soul-builder — but your message is still scattered —

You don't need more motivation.

You need a system.

ANSWER:

That's why I created The Bisong Blueprint™.

A 30-day soul alignment and product-building system. It's not a course — it's a correction.

You'll audit your spiritual voice... Clarify your brand message... Create your book, product, or program... And finally, show up in the world with visibility, value, and voice.

PROOF:

I used this same system to go from struggling for clarity... to launching my message across platforms, building a product that speaks, and connecting with people who are finally hearing me.

Not because I got louder — but because I got aligned.

Video 2 – You're Not Inconsistent. You're Unaligned.

HOOK: "You're not inconsistent. You're unaligned."

STORY:

I used to beat myself up every time I fell off a plan.

I'd say, "What's wrong with me? Why can't I stay consistent?"

But deep down, I wasn't lazy. I wasn't weak.

I was building with someone else's blueprint.

Trying to show up online with strategies that didn't reflect my soul. And that's why I kept burning out.

NEED:

If you've tried 5 different planners, posted 12 times this month, started 3 "brands" — and still feel unseen — The problem isn't your work ethic.

It's the lack of soul structure. Your voice isn't supposed to be viral. It's supposed to be anchored.

ANSWER:

That's why I created The Bisong Blueprint™ — for people like you.

It's a 30-day personal audit + product-building experience for authors, speakers, and soulpreneurs.

- It clarifies your message
- Activates your product or book
- Builds your visibility with purpose—not pressure

PROOF:

I'm not posting more. I'm posting from alignment.

And now... everything flows. My words land. My systems sell. My soul finally feels seen.

Video 3 – You Don't Need More Content. You Need a Correction.

HOOK: "You don't need more content. You need a correction."

STORY:

I used to post every day... Quotes. Reels. Carousels. Motivation. But nothing really moved.

I thought I had a content problem — But what I really had... was a clarity problem.

I was pushing out words without direction. Performing instead of transmitting.

NEED:

Maybe you've been told: "Post more. Engage more. Build fast." But let me ask you this:

If all your content disappeared tomorrow... Would people still remember your voice?

The truth is — you don't need more noise. You need a soul strategy.

ANSWER:

That's why I created The Bisong Blueprint™.

A 30-day realignment plan for messengers, not marketers.

This isn't a "content calendar." This is a personal correction that gives you clarity, confidence, and an actual product rooted in your voice.

■ Soul Reading

■ Message + Offer Clarity

■ Writing Strategy

■ Visibility System

PROOF:

I used to think content would save me. Now I know — content without alignment is just noise.

But alignment turns your words into weapons of healing.

That's what this Blueprint gave me.

CALL TO ACTION:

If this video speaks to you... stop grinding. Start transmitting.

Video 4 – This Is the 1 Thing Your Calling Needs Now

HOOK: “This is the 1 thing your calling needs right now.”

STORY:

I used to pray for open doors. For clarity. For connection.

I had ideas, books in my heart, a voice I couldn’t shake... but everything felt stuck.

Then one night, I realized: My calling wasn’t confused. It was just uncoded.

NEED:

If you feel spiritually called, but you don’t know what to post, what to sell, or how to show up with confidence— you don’t need another course.

You need a way to translate your gift into a product. You need a system that honors your soul and multiplies your voice.

ANSWER:

That’s what The Bisong Blueprint™ was built for.

A 30-day alignment and activation journey for creators, coaches, writers, and spiritual entrepreneurs who are gifted—but unstructured.

- Correct your soul blind spots
- Craft your core product
- Create your visibility plan

Video 5 – Your Soul Is On Air. Let's Build Your Broadcast System.

HOOK: "Your soul is on air. The question is—what are you broadcasting?"

STORY:

I remember the day I almost deleted everything. The posts. The page. The book idea.

Because even though I was showing up... it still felt like no one could hear me.

But then I realized: My soul was on air— I just hadn't built the broadcast system.

NEED:

Maybe you're posting... but you're not converting. Speaking... but not connecting. Writing... but not building.

That's not because you're not gifted. It's because you've been sharing pieces of your power—without a container to hold it all.

ANSWER:

That's why I built The Bisong Blueprint™.

Not just to help you write content... but to build your platform, your voice, your product—from the soul out.

- Clarity to your message
- Structure to your calling
- Strategy to your soul
- A launch-ready product that aligns with your life

PROOF:

I didn't blow up overnight. I got clear. I built a system. I corrected what was blocking my flow. Now, I teach others to do the same.
